CSI Aviation Proud to be Named Among Nation's "Best for Vets" Employers
*NM-based company is the only aviation firm listed in the Military Times Top 59

The two firms finalized the acquisition on Monday, March 24. Seeker America, and its parent company, CSI Aviation, are headquartered in Albuquerque. Seabird Aviation is located in Hervey Bay, Australia, on the eastern coast north of Brisbane.

Last year, CSI Aviation donated one of the two Seeker airplanes it had purchased for demonstration and marketing purposes to the New Mexico State Police. The airplane has since been configured with cameras and other equipment for use in law enforcement, providing a model for its real-world effectiveness and application.

The CSI Story

Established in 1979, CSI Aviation, Inc. (CSI) has grown into an integrated, global aviation company providing diverse and complex solutions to commercial and government clients. In addition to providing corporations, government agencies, athletic teams, commercial groups and private individuals air charter services, aviation logistics, and program management among other services, CSI fills a unique niche in the aviation industry – solving complex aviation requirements. CSI arranges commercial aircraft using a wide variety of certified air carriers as agents for its customers and provides aircraft purchase, leasing and maintenance support.

CSI also holds a GSA Schedule for Air Charter and Aircraft Leasing and provides fuel and ground services worldwide.

Military Times Announces the 59 Best for Vets: Employers
Selection focuses on corporate culture and policy that caters to vets

SPRINGFIELD, VA – Military Times today announced its Best for Vets: Employers 2014 rankings.

The organization comprising Army Times, Navy Times, Air Force Times and Marine Corps Times focused on culture and policies that cater to military veterans when conducting and scoring the fifth annual Best for Vets: Employers survey, a highly respected, nearly 90-question analysis of a company's efforts to connect with veterans and provide an environment for success.

"As with all of the Best for Vets rankings, Best for Vets: Employers is an editorially independent news project that evaluates the many factors that make a company a good fit for military veterans and spouses," said Amanda Miller, editor of Military Times EDGE magazine.

For the full Best for Vets: Employers 2014 rankings, go to:
www.militarytimes.com/bestforvetsemployers2014.

The rankings are published in full in the April issue of Military Times EDGE magazine, the premier publication for military transition, and online at MilitaryTimes.com, as well as ArmyTimes.com, NavyTimes.com, AirForceTimes.com and MarineCorpsTimes.com.

The top 59 employers are mentioned, and the top 25 compared, in the issues of Army Times, Navy Times, Air Force Times and Marine Corps Times on newsstands the week of April 14.

Military Times' series of Best for Vets survey-based rankings includes: Colleges, Career & Technical Colleges, Business Schools, Franchises, Employers and Law Enforcement.
